RAILWAY RESERVATION SYSTEM

Railway Reservation System is an application used by customers to book and reserve seats in trains, cancel bookings track trains realtime routes and make payments.

The system can be used by Admin, Customers

→ Customers will be able to   View Trains
                                         View Time table
                                         View Seat availability
                                         Book Seats
                                         Buy Platform tickets
                                         make Payment

→ Admin will be Able to   Add Trains
                                         Change Train timings
                                         Change Availability

Classes Identified:
     → Trains
     → Seats
     → Customer
     → Admin
     → Time Table